Chapter 1 by lightningstrikesannah (I'm back!)

I sat quietly in the hospital waiting room, feigning sleep. My wife had been sick for weeks now, and we had gone to the hospital when she began to turn pale, and almost fainted.

As I got up to go to the vending machine, for I hadn't eaten in hours, I heard the doctor call my name.

I turned, and he gave me a sad look, the one I had been fearing.

He said the words no one would ever want to hear.

"Your wife has cancer."

Chapter 2 by Rav Vin

For a moment, the world ended for me. Please spare her, oh God! She is love of my life, the only person left for me.

It was not so long ago, in a place like this I heard the same. It was my mother back then and I met her for the first time.

But now, there is no one to stand with me. My thoughts were broken as her hand is on my shoulder.

"Doctor said its not bad." I said to her.

She smiled and kissed on my head.

I have to hold back my tears.

"We are fighting together as a team" She whispered.

Chapter 3 by Rav Vin

A team wins or loose together, but now... My thoughts were broken when Sam pulled my cheeks. Sam is my nephew, he is 3 years old. She always wanted to have a son like him. But after several abortions, we decided to adopt a child,until this happened.

"Why are you crying, Uncle?"asked Sam.

"Nothing Sam."

He looked puzzled.

"I cried because you are heavy."

He pulled my nose and ran to his mommy, my sister. She is whispering something to her and glanced at me. I know she said something i don't like. She is a doctor and she knows the situation as well as future than anyone in that room. She wanted to become doctor when our mother was diagnosed with the same. She took it as a challenge to find a cure, while I... sobbed my life.Will a miracle happen? I gave that up a long time ago...

If only I know how Dad took everything under his calmness...
